

General Labor

Location: Cleveland, OH

Company Summary: Fiberworx uses recycled plastic materials to create a clean and lightweight synthetic fiber used in numerous commercial applications such as padding, linings, insulation, and industrial filters. Fiberworx currently focuses on automotive applications and supplies material to 1st tier customers for both thermal and acoustic products. The company operates multiple lines including thermally bonded PET, needle punched PET, toll compounding, as well as other secondary processes.

Objective: Proficiently operate machines in a safe manner necessary to manufacture quality compounds and products. Clean shop floor, move material, fill hoppers, assist operators and maintenance techs, operate forklift, and work as a team employee on the manufacturing floor.

Responsibilities:

- Assembly, Stacking, Caulking
- Setting up and operating a wide range of nonwoven processing equipment
- Partake in the process of manufacturing thermal, acoustic, and filtration products
- Machine Operation
- Setup fiber formulas
- Utilize hand tools and measuring devices
- Troubleshoot and repair issue with the machines
- Confer with engineering, supervisory, or manufacturing personnel to exchange technical information
- Comply with all safety rules and company policies

Requirements:

- High school diploma or equivalent
- At least 3 years of experience operating manual machinery in a production-based environment
- Mechanical proficiency
- Attention to detail
- Ability to perform basic arithmetic, including reading a tape measure.
- Extrusion experience highly desirable
- Quality experience highly desirable

*Offers of employment will be contingent upon satisfactory results of medical exams, drug tests, and background checks.